

Take the time to remember God's...

Power to completely deliver his people.

Promises are always true.

Plan for you to teach the next generation.

Proclamation for you to know Him.

Questions for Discussion:

What are some places where people today need God's power to deliver them?

Where do you personally need to experience God's power?

Are you doubting or believing God's power to overcome this?

How well are you doing in slowing down to be still and know God?

What does that look like for you?

What are one of God's promises that you are holding onto right now?

For the men during the breakout time:

1. Would others say you verbally, tangibly love your wife?
2. Would others say you share verbally about God's grace in your life?
3. Would others say you are a go-to person - for anything?
4. Would others say you tell them about their strengths?

Are there any steps you need to take this week that God is impressing on your heart?

For the women during the breakout time:

What can you do to encourage the men around you to stand up and live righteously for Christ?

What could you tell another person about how God has demonstrated His faithfulness to you?
