

Live your life whole-heartedly for God...

With the hand you were dealt at the time of your calling. (17, 20, 24)

Regardless of your religious or irreligious heritage at your conversion. (18-19)

Without trying to change your social status. (21-22)

Because you were bought with a price. (23)

Questions for Discussion:

How would you describe your “calling?” What are your unique life circumstances?

How could God use you more by you living “whole-heartedly” for Him amidst your circumstances?

What are ways we might be tempted to change our story when sharing it with others?

Where does your testimony stand on the spectrum from “boring” to “wild?”

Who are the kind of people that God might really impact through your unique testimony?

If you are currently employed, where does your employer stand on the spectrum from good to bad?

How does working for Jesus Christ impact your work ethic?

Are there aspects of your work that needs to improve in light of working for Him?